

This paper has the confidence of the buying public. This helps the advertising man some, doesn't it?

THE SALT LAKE HERALD.

Established June 6, 1870.

SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH, SUNDAY, APRIL 29, 1906

30 PAGES. Price Five Cents.

If a man in this town wants to invest in a piece of Salt Lake property, he ought to study the real estate ads in this paper.

NEVER BE MAKELIVE

Another Tracy at Large in Oregon, Fighting Desperately to Escape Justice.

SHOOTS DOWN OFFICERS RAILROADS ARE INVOLVED

POSSES ON TRAIL OF FRANK SMITH.

Woodburn, Ore., April 28.—The countryside about Woodburn is being patrolled tonight, a man being stationed at nearly every farm house for miles around, in the effort to apprehend the man who shot Sheriff Shaver and Captain Henderson today, and who it is believed, is Frank Smith, an escaped prisoner from the Portland jail.

Sheriff Culver has given up hope of corraling the man, and now trusts to his being compelled by hunger to make himself known at one of the houses within the patrolled area. The man has not been seen since his disappearance after the encounter with Shaver's posse early this morning.

Woodburn, Ore., April 28.—The slayer of Policeman Hanlon of Oregon City early today laid two of the posse which is pursuing him, one of his victims, Captain O. D. Henderson, having died since the effects of his wound, and the other, Sheriff J. S. Shaver of Clackamas county, lies mortally injured at a Salem hospital, where both the men were taken on a special train immediately after the shooting.

This man, whom the Portland detectives declare to be identical with Frank Smith, who escaped from the Portland jail, where he was confined on a charge of having robbed the postoffice at Troutdale, Sunday last, eluded his pursuers this morning before daylight, and escaped from the nursery in which he took refuge after shooting Henderson and Shaver, taking refuge in the woods which skirt Woodburn. Here is where he is supposed to be at present.

Where Tracy Hid. These same woods are where the notorious penitentiary escapes, Tracy and Merrill, eluded their pursuers a few years ago, and whence they disappeared to reappear some days later on the Washington shore of the Columbia river. In more than this respect does this man, if it be Smith, resemble Tracy and Merrill. He has met all opposition with immediate shooting, and has been even more deadly than Tracy, so far as pre-emptive action is concerned, as he has killed a man with each shot which he has fired.

Ran Into the Officers.

The posse which has been pursuing Smith for three days surrounded him in the outskirts of Woodburn in a clump of bushes, about dusk last night, but owing to darkness it was decided to wait until daylight before attempting to secure the man. Shortly after 1 o'clock Smith made a sudden dash from the bushes and gained the railroad, where he ran almost headlong into a party of the posse, consisting of Captain Henderson, Sheriff Shaver, Sheriff Culver of Marion and two or three others.

Henderson commanded Smith to throw up his hands, and Smith responded by opening fire with a revolver at a distance of six feet. Henderson fell at almost the first shot with a severe wound in the chest, and a moment later went down, what is believed to be a fatal wound in the stomach.

Darted Into Nursery. Before the others realized what had happened, Smith darted into a nursery close to the track. The remainder of the posse hurriedly surrounded this place, where it is believed Smith will be. The news of the shooting spread with remarkable rapidity and within half an hour a large portion of the male population of Woodburn had arrived in the vicinity of the nursery.

Assistance from Portland was telephoned for and a number of detectives and deputy sheriffs left that city on a special train which reached here about 7 o'clock, and joined the Woodburn posse.

Sheriff Shaver, who fired two shots after the retreating form after he had himself been shot, fell over and over again that one of his bullets reached its mark.

ESCAPED FROM NURSERY.

Bird Had Flown Before the Posse Made the Search.

Portland, April 28.—A telephone message from the Associated Press correspondent at Woodburn says: "When seen by the posse, daylight of the nursery into which Smith escaped and was supposed to be in hiding it was discovered that the man had again eluded the posse. Smith is believed to have fled to the thickly wooded country in the vicinity of Apple creek. The posse from Woodburn, assisted by a detachment from the Portland police department and a number of the state militia, is now scouring the country in which the man is supposed to be hiding.

Marion county has increased the reward offered for Smith to $10,000, an additional $1,000 having been placed on this head this morning.

DECISION WILL STAND.

Toronto, Canada, April 28.—Impetuous Potemkin Harry Collins of the Mystic Shriners today declined to cancel his order calling off the convention of the Shriner lodge, held at Los Angeles on May 7. Instead, he has called a meeting for May 10 at the same place. J. H. Pearson, a messenger from the Los Angeles Shriners, who asked that the meeting be held, vainly tried to get Mr. Collins to alter his decision.

STANDARD OIL AGAIN ON RACK

Suit Filed in Toledo Asking for Revocation of Charter of the Giant Corporation.

STATE OF OHIO BEHIND THE PROSECUTION.

Toledo, Ohio, April 28.—Alleging that the Standard Oil company and seventeen affiliated companies have a secret trade agreement by which they control production and transportation of oil and gas, Prosecutor L. W. Wachenheimer of Lucas county, today filed suit in the circuit court, asking revocation of their charters and dissolution of the illegal agreement. In addition to the Standard, the following corporations are named as defendants: The Lake Shore & Michigan Southern, Toledo & Ohio Central, Hocking Valley, Standard Oil company of Ohio, Indiana, New York and New Jersey, Buckeye Pipe Line company, Solar Refining company, Ohio Oil company, Northwestern Ohio National Gas company, Union Tank company of Indiana, the National Transit company of New Jersey, Pennsylvania Oil company of Pennsylvania, and the South Penn Oil company.

Allegations in Petition.

In the petition it is alleged that the production of oil was reduced for the purpose of increasing prices to consumers. It is set up that this reduction amounts to 50 per cent, while the price of gas to the consumer has been increased 100 per cent. Reference to the alleged trade pact is sensational, in that the charge is made that the companies named as defendants have bound themselves not to sell or transport oil or gas below a certain standard rate.

Queries are directed in the petition to the railroad companies' presidents, asking them whether rebates are given directly or indirectly to companies and whether the oil companies have been given pipe line rights on the railroads.

State Behind the Prosecution.

It developed today that Prosecutor Wachenheimer filed the suits against the Standard Oil and other companies on behalf of Attorney General Ellis. This is especially significant, together with the announcement that the cases will be tried in the supreme court, discharging the fact that the state is behind the Toledo prosecution in the action gives it strength which otherwise it would not possess.

Under the law firm of Doyle & Lewis, which represents a majority of the companies named as defendants, this afternoon announced that the case will be fought to the bitter end by the corporations named as defendants.

HEAVY LOSS OF BAPTISTS Appeal Will Be Made for Funds With Which to Rebuild Destroyed Churches.

Oakland, Cal., April 28.—The Baptist denomination suffered heavily through the recent earthquake and fire. In San Francisco four churches were destroyed by fire. The First church of Oakland and the First church of San Jose were wrecked and a dozen or more others were badly damaged. Hundreds of Baptist members have lost their homes, business and incomes. In one church all the members lost their homes. A Baptist relief committee has been organized, which, in cooperation with the American Baptist Home Mission society, appeals to the country for $200,000 to meet the needs of the present emergency. Rev. C. M. Hill, D. D., and Rev. James Sunderland, D. D., will be sent east to promote the movement. Rev. E. E. Chivers, D. D., field secretary of the American Baptist Home Mission society, and Rev. C. A. Woody, D. D., superintendent of missions on the coast, are on the ground and are actively aiding in the project.

San Francisco, April 28.—"The Lutherans of San Francisco escaped with as little injury as any denomination in the city," said Rev. E. H. Hadlock, pastor of the First Evangelical church, today. "Our larger churches were practically uninjured and in our own congregation probably the largest, there are but two people missing. Some of the smaller churches were destroyed and some Lutherans were rendered homeless, but the churches will be rebuilt immediately and the people are being cared for by the various relief committees."

San Francisco, April 28.—"The Lutherans of San Francisco escaped with as little injury as any denomination in the city," said Rev. E. H. Hadlock, pastor of the First Evangelical church, today. "Our larger churches were practically uninjured and in our own congregation probably the largest, there are but two people missing. Some of the smaller churches were destroyed and some Lutherans were rendered homeless, but the churches will be rebuilt immediately and the people are being cared for by the various relief committees."

San Francisco, April 28.—"The Lutherans of San Francisco escaped with as little injury as any denomination in the city," said Rev. E. H. Hadlock, pastor of the First Evangelical church, today. "Our larger churches were practically uninjured and in our own congregation probably the largest, there are but two people missing. Some of the smaller churches were destroyed and some Lutherans were rendered homeless, but the churches will be rebuilt immediately and the people are being cared for by the various relief committees."

San Francisco, April 28.—"The Lutherans of San Francisco escaped with as little injury as any denomination in the city," said Rev. E. H. Hadlock, pastor of the First Evangelical church, today. "Our larger churches were practically uninjured and in our own congregation probably the largest, there are but two people missing. Some of the smaller churches were destroyed and some Lutherans were rendered homeless, but the churches will be rebuilt immediately and the people are being cared for by the various relief committees."

San Francisco, April 28.—"The Lutherans of San Francisco escaped with as little injury as any denomination in the city," said Rev. E. H. Hadlock, pastor of the First Evangelical church, today. "Our larger churches were practically uninjured and in our own congregation probably the largest, there are but two people missing. Some of the smaller churches were destroyed and some Lutherans were rendered homeless, but the churches will be rebuilt immediately and the people are being cared for by the various relief committees."

San Francisco, April 28.—"The Lutherans of San Francisco escaped with as little injury as any denomination in the city," said Rev. E. H. Hadlock, pastor of the First Evangelical church, today. "Our larger churches were practically uninjured and in our own congregation probably the largest, there are but two people missing. Some of the smaller churches were destroyed and some Lutherans were rendered homeless, but the churches will be rebuilt immediately and the people are being cared for by the various relief committees."

San Francisco, April 28.—"The Lutherans of San Francisco escaped with as little injury as any denomination in the city," said Rev. E. H. Hadlock, pastor of the First Evangelical church, today. "Our larger churches were practically uninjured and in our own congregation probably the largest, there are but two people missing. Some of the smaller churches were destroyed and some Lutherans were rendered homeless, but the churches will be rebuilt immediately and the people are being cared for by the various relief committees."

San Francisco, April 28.—"The Lutherans of San Francisco escaped with as little injury as any denomination in the city," said Rev. E. H. Hadlock, pastor of the First Evangelical church, today. "Our larger churches were practically uninjured and in our own congregation probably the largest, there are but two people missing. Some of the smaller churches were destroyed and some Lutherans were rendered homeless, but the churches will be rebuilt immediately and the people are being cared for by the various relief committees."

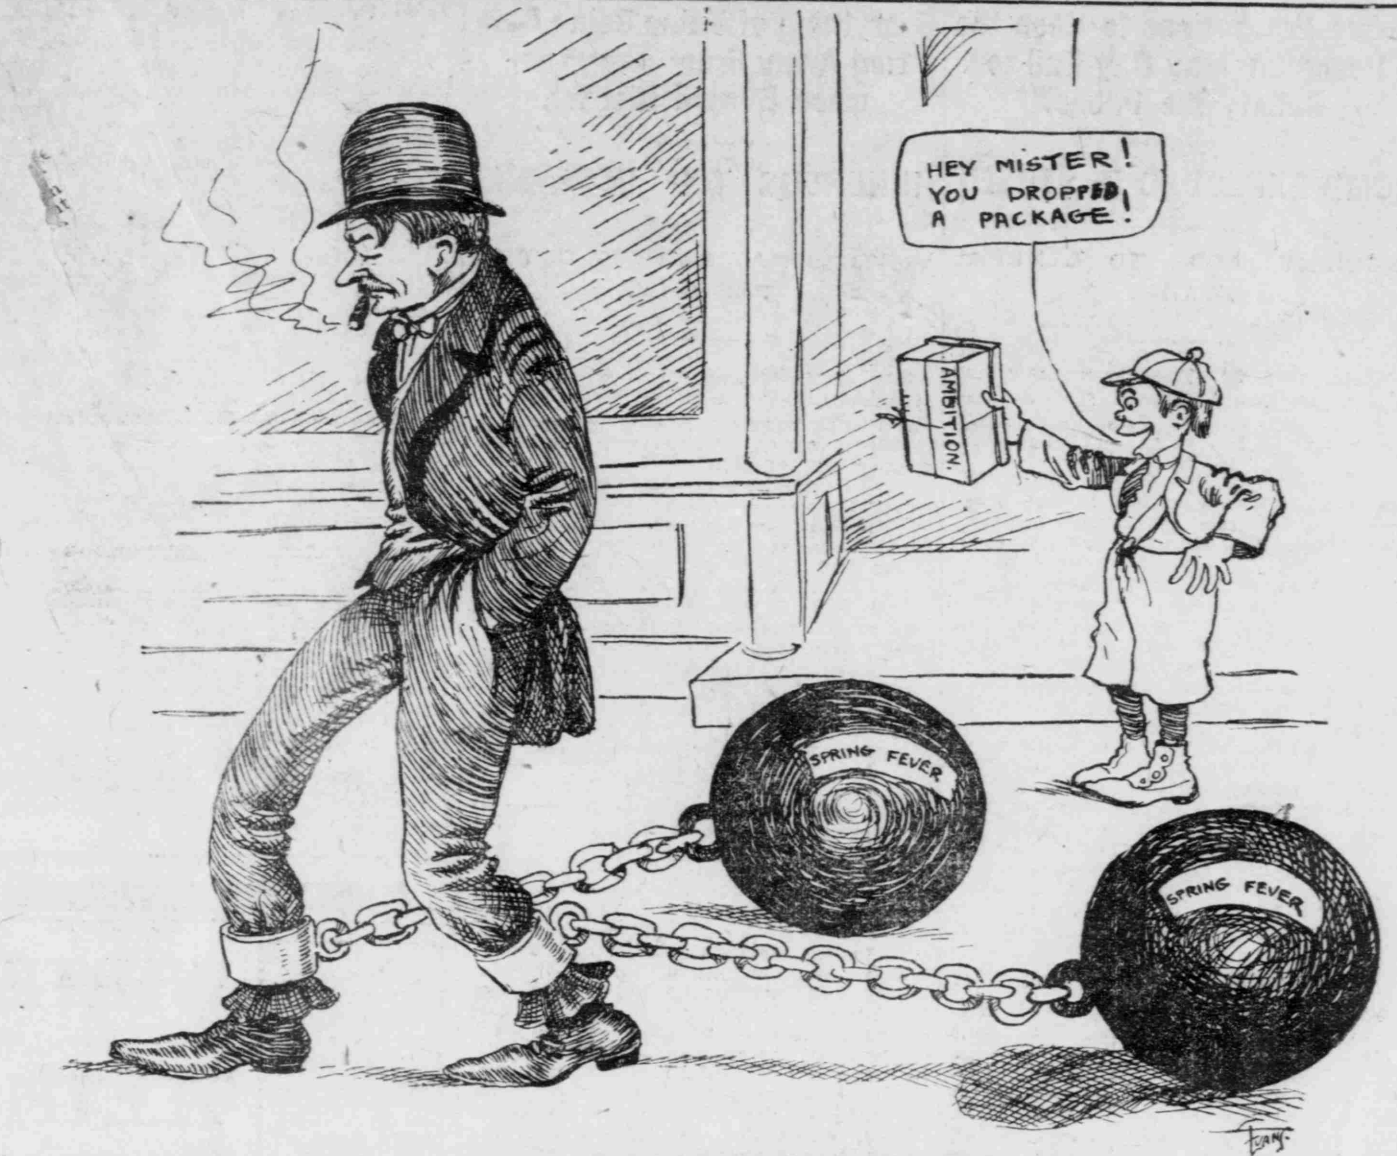

PEOPLE FLED SHRIEKING FROM THEIR HOMES

Avalanches of Mud, Sand, Ashes and Cinders Come Down From Vesuvius During a Gale of Wind—Great Damage Wrought by the Storm.

Naples, April 28.—Another disaster has occurred in the Vesuvius region. Throughout the past night torrents of rain fell, causing by a heavy gale of wind, causing large avalanches of mud, sand, ashes and cinders to fall over Somma and Santa Anastasia, destroying bridges, blocking the roads, flooding many habitations, interrupting communication by telegraph and carrying away portions of the railway. Troops and military weapons were hurriedly dispatched to the assistance of the sufferers.

Inhabitants Panic Stricken.

The inhabitants of the stricken

It's Funny When You Feel That Way

INDIAN BILL GOES THROUGH

Several Hours of Spirited Debate in Senate Before a Vote Was Reached.

Washington, April 28.—The senate today passed the Indian appropriation bill. Several hours were devoted to spirited debate on the question of removing the restrictions from the allotted lands of the Choctaws, Chickasaws, Creeks and Seminoles except full-bloods. After an amendment was offered and amended to suit those who favored it, a point of order was made against the provision and sustained by the vice president.

Mr. Spooner was the particular champion of the Indians providing the right of restriction, but Messrs. Teller, Lodge and others who favored the amendment charged that he was misguided in his zeal and the Indians themselves wanted to be permitted to seek a market for their surplus lands. Mr. Bailey argued that the right of the restriction was in the interest of the white settler and the future of Oklahoma and Indian territory depended upon getting farmers on these lands before the prices became too high for the settlers to buy.

The appeal had no effect on Mr. Spooner, who said the entire argument appeared to be for the white man, with nothing for the Indian.

TERRORISTS AGAIN WORK

Chief of Police and Patrolman Assassinated at Odessa.

Odessa, April 28.—The chief of police who played such a prominent role in the October massacres here and a policeman were assassinated by revolutionists here today in broad daylight. The plot was far-reaching and contemplated also the assassination of Assistant Chief of Police Poltavchenko and several other policemen. A young girl named Jerebtzova threw a bomb at Poltavchenko, who was on the way to the hospital to visit one of the wounded policemen. Her aim was poor, and Poltavchenko was unhurt. The girl was seriously wounded by Poltavchenko's orderly.

Odessa, April 28.—The chief of police who played such a prominent role in the October massacres here and a policeman were assassinated by revolutionists here today in broad daylight. The plot was far-reaching and contemplated also the assassination of Assistant Chief of Police Poltavchenko and several other policemen. A young girl named Jerebtzova threw a bomb at Poltavchenko, who was on the way to the hospital to visit one of the wounded policemen. Her aim was poor, and Poltavchenko was unhurt. The girl was seriously wounded by Poltavchenko's orderly.

Odessa, April 28.—The chief of police who played such a prominent role in the October massacres here and a policeman were assassinated by revolutionists here today in broad daylight. The plot was far-reaching and contemplated also the assassination of Assistant Chief of Police Poltavchenko and several other policemen. A young girl named Jerebtzova threw a bomb at Poltavchenko, who was on the way to the hospital to visit one of the wounded policemen. Her aim was poor, and Poltavchenko was unhurt. The girl was seriously wounded by Poltavchenko's orderly.

LEFT HIS WIFE AND CAME TO SALT LAKE

(Special to The Herald.)

Denver, Colo., April 28.—In the case of Charlotte Ashworth against Thomas Ashworth, a decree in the district court was granted the plaintiff. Cruelty and desertion were the charges brought by the fair applicant, who averred that in less than six weeks after their marriage her husband had decamped to Salt Lake City and refused to live with her. Ashworth formerly practiced law in Denver.

NEGRO WOMEN FIGHT DUEL.

New York, April 28.—Two negro women, Marie Louise, aged 27, and Bella Bailey, aged 20, fought, the former using a knife and the latter a revolver, early today in West Twenty-ninth street, until Marie Louise was shot and killed. Bella Bailey afterwards gave herself up, saying she shot in self-defense. She was not injured.

At police headquarters nothing is known of the citizens' patrol. Chief Dinan and Captain Burke state that the citizens' organization is unnecessary; that the police force and the soldiers are amply able to take care of the situation.

The citizens' patrolmen received no instructions at the time of being sworn in, nor was anything said to them about pay. They are being told by the officers of the organization and the men are to patrol within the districts in which they live. Each man is given a star and a number, with a card setting forth that he has regular police authority. These men are to receive no pay for their services, but have merely volunteered to work for the good of the community. No relationship between the new organization and the regular police force seems to have been contemplated.

At police headquarters nothing is known of the citizens' patrol. Chief Dinan and Captain Burke state that the citizens' organization is unnecessary; that the police force and the soldiers are amply able to take care of the situation.

The citizens' patrolmen received no instructions at the time of being sworn in, nor was anything said to them about pay. They are being told by the officers of the organization and the men are to patrol within the districts in which they live. Each man is given a star and a number, with a card setting forth that he has regular police authority. These men are to receive no pay for their services, but have merely volunteered to work for the good of the community. No relationship between the new organization and the regular police force seems to have been contemplated.

At police headquarters nothing is known of the citizens' patrol. Chief Dinan and Captain Burke state that the citizens' organization is unnecessary; that the police force and the soldiers are amply able to take care of the situation.

CHINESE ARE GRATEFUL.

Washington, April 28.—Advices received at the Chinese legation in this city from the Chinese consul general in San Francisco indicate that every consideration is being shown the Chinese refugees, and the troops are giving them adequate protection.

MUEFTER MAY NOT BE A MURDERER

Some Mystery About the Case of Harvard Man Accused of Killing Wife.

Cambridge, Mass., April 28.—Telegrams received today from the Chicago police were to the effect that Erich Muefter, the instructor at Harvard university, wanted on the charge of murdering his wife, had left that city and that there seemed to be no indications as to where he had gone. It was commonly understood, however, among Muefter's friends that he intended to return to Cambridge.

The authorities and college officials seem greatly mystified over the case, as Muefter had an excellent reputation. No motive has appeared for the alleged crime. The woman's death occurred not many days after the birth of a child.

It developed today that reports that a warrant had been issued for Muefter were erroneous. District Judge Almy refused a request for a warrant, saying that Muefter had not been charged with the crime. Chief of Police Hullen said this would make no difference in his efforts to locate Muefter.

Chicago, April 28.—Detectives detailed on the Muefter case reported today that evidence has been secured which would seem to indicate that Muefter had left Chicago, probably for Los Angeles.

Circumstances have come to light which tend to show that Muefter was not all that he seemed. He was a man of many talents, but his mental faculties, Bertha C. Muefter, a teacher in the public schools, was questioned today, as it is believed she may know the whereabouts of her brother.

Chicago, April 28.—Detectives detailed on the Muefter case reported today that evidence has been secured which would seem to indicate that Muefter had left Chicago, probably for Los Angeles.

Circumstances have come to light which tend to show that Muefter was not all that he seemed. He was a man of many talents, but his mental faculties, Bertha C. Muefter, a teacher in the public schools, was questioned today, as it is believed she may know the whereabouts of her brother.

Chicago, April 28.—Detectives detailed on the Muefter case reported today that evidence has been secured which would seem to indicate that Muefter had left Chicago, probably for Los Angeles.

SPECIAL POLICE OFFICERS

San Francisco Circuit Judge Takes It Upon Himself to Appoint a Force.

San Francisco, April 28.—Nearly 400 men were sworn in as special police officers by Circuit Judge Hosmer this afternoon. The city has been divided into thirty districts and the men are to patrol within the districts in which they live. Each man is given a star and a number, with a card setting forth that he has regular police authority. These men are to receive no pay for their services, but have merely volunteered to work for the good of the community. No relationship between the new organization and the regular police force seems to have been contemplated.

At police headquarters nothing is known of the citizens' patrol. Chief Dinan and Captain Burke state that the citizens' organization is unnecessary; that the police force and the soldiers are amply able to take care of the situation.

The citizens' patrolmen received no instructions at the time of being sworn in, nor was anything said to them about pay. They are being told by the officers of the organization and the men are to patrol within the districts in which they live. Each man is given a star and a number, with a card setting forth that he has regular police authority. These men are to receive no pay for their services, but have merely volunteered to work for the good of the community. No relationship between the new organization and the regular police force seems to have been contemplated.

At police headquarters nothing is known of the citizens' patrol. Chief Dinan and Captain Burke state that the citizens' organization is unnecessary; that the police force and the soldiers are amply able to take care of the situation.

The citizens' patrolmen received no instructions at the time of being sworn in, nor was anything said to them about pay. They are being told by the officers of the organization and the men are to patrol within the districts in which they live. Each man is given a star and a number, with a card setting forth that he has regular police authority. These men are to receive no pay for their services, but have merely volunteered to work for the good of the community. No relationship between the new organization and the regular police force seems to have been contemplated.

At police headquarters nothing is known of the citizens' patrol. Chief Dinan and Captain Burke state that the citizens' organization is unnecessary; that the police force and the soldiers are amply able to take care of the situation.

The citizens' patrolmen received no instructions at the time of being sworn in, nor was anything said to them about pay. They are being told by the officers of the organization and the men are to patrol within the districts in which they live. Each man is given a star and a number, with a card setting forth that he has regular police authority. These men are to receive no pay for their services, but have merely volunteered to work for the good of the community. No relationship between the new organization and the regular police force seems to have been contemplated.

At police headquarters nothing is known of the citizens' patrol. Chief Dinan and Captain Burke state that the citizens' organization is unnecessary; that the police force and the soldiers are amply able to take care of the situation.

BOUND TO INTERRUPT HIM

Democratic Leader Pestered by the Opposition and an Attack of Neuralgia.

Washington, April 28.—Mr. Williams, the minority leader of the house, concluded his speech begun yesterday, occupying the floor for two hours. With the experience of the many interruptions of the day before, the leader of the minority threw himself upon the mercy of the body and asked that he be not interrupted. Generally his request was observed, but here and there questions were put to him which nettled the speaker not a little. Mr. Williams was unable to conclude on account of a severe attack of neuralgia.

Mr. Cushman of Washington replied to Mr. Williams, but was taken off the floor before he had really got started, owing to the former action of the house agreeing to conclude general debate on the agricultural appropriation bill at 3:30 o'clock, at which time the house adjourned.

OPENS WITH NEW RULES

Salon of the Society of French Artists Has Finally Abandoned Favoritism.

Paris, April 28.—The salon of the Society of French Artists opening to the public May 1, presents once again the lesson of the survival of the fittest, the two-thirds full in an address Voliva not only denounced Dowie, but Mrs. Dowie as well. He said:

"I do not propose to permit any sinner to think that he can escape. Do not think that Dowie is the only one to be called to account. The next one will be Mrs. Jane Dowie. If she thinks she is going to stand before this people without confessing her sin, she is greatly mistaken. In some respects she is as great a sinner as Dowie. She is on his side tonight and always has been. The lust in her heart for power is as great as in his. I saw the whole Dowie family must be swept off the earth."

This statement was loudly applauded.

Continuing, Voliva said: "For years that family has sucked the blood out of this people, to satisfy their lust for fine clothes and to make a showing. They have made no confession and no attempt to repent, but they still attempt to bluff you. If Dowie is not insane, the other word to brand him with is the word 'criminal'."

Voliva will use the college building as the place of worship tomorrow, while Dowie holds forth in the tabernacle, it being the "first apostle's" turn to defend himself, in accordance with the order of the court giving the opposing factions the use of the big meeting house on alternate days.

Continuing, Voliva said: "For years that family has sucked the blood out of this people, to satisfy their lust for fine clothes and to make a showing. They have made no confession and no attempt to repent, but they still attempt to bluff you. If Dowie is not insane, the other word to brand him with is the word 'criminal'."

Voliva will use the college building as the place of worship tomorrow, while Dowie holds forth in the tabernacle, it being the "first apostle's" turn to defend himself, in accordance with the order of the court giving the opposing factions the use of the big meeting house on alternate days.

Continuing, Voliva said: "For years that family has sucked the blood out of this people, to satisfy their lust for fine clothes and to make a showing. They have made no confession and no attempt to repent, but they still attempt to bluff you. If Dowie is not insane, the other word to brand him with is the word 'criminal'."

Voliva will use the college building as the place of worship tomorrow, while Dowie holds forth in the tabernacle, it being the "first apostle's" turn to defend himself, in accordance with the order of the court giving the opposing factions the use of the big meeting house on alternate days.

Continuing, Voliva said: "For years that family has sucked the blood out of this people, to satisfy their lust for fine clothes and to make a showing. They have made no confession and no attempt to repent, but they still attempt to bluff you. If Dowie is not insane, the other word to brand him with is the word 'criminal'."

Voliva will use the college building as the place of worship tomorrow, while Dowie holds forth in the tabernacle, it being the "first apostle's" turn to defend himself, in accordance with the order of the court giving the opposing factions the use of the big meeting house on alternate days.

Continuing, Voliva said: "For years that family has sucked the blood out of this people, to satisfy their lust for fine clothes and to make a showing. They have made no confession and no attempt to repent, but they still attempt to bluff you. If Dowie is not insane, the other word to brand him with is the word 'criminal'."

Voliva will use the college building as the place of worship tomorrow, while Dowie holds forth in the tabernacle, it being the "first apostle's" turn to defend himself, in accordance with the order of the court giving the opposing factions the use of the big meeting house on alternate days.

Continuing, Voliva said: "For years that family has sucked the blood out of this people, to satisfy their lust for fine clothes and to make a showing. They have made no confession and no attempt to repent, but they still attempt to bluff you. If Dowie is not insane, the other word to brand him with is the word 'criminal'."

Voliva will use the college building as the place of worship tomorrow, while Dowie holds forth in the tabernacle, it being the "first apostle's" turn to defend himself, in accordance with the order of the court giving the opposing factions the use of the big meeting house on alternate days.

ELIJAH DOWIE HOME IN ZION

Greeted at Shiloh House by His Wife, Who Has Deserted Overseer Voliva.

LATTER HOLDS A MEETING

DOWIE FAMILY DENOUNCED AS CRIMINALS.

Chicago, April 28.—"I am glad to be home again." With these words on his lips, John Alexander Dowie, the deposed leader of the Christian Catholic Church in America, this afternoon stepped within the portals of Shiloh house, thus completing his much-heralded entry into Zion City and the scene of several months, during which time he had been deserted by a large part of his followers and had been stripped of all ecclesiastical authority. Mrs. Dowie, the wife of the "first apostle," met him at the door of Shiloh house and gave him a hearty welcome.

Few Greeted Him.

Dowie's return to Zion City was void of all pomp and ceremony. Only a handful of people were at the station to greet him, and the majority of these were women. Dowie left the Auditorium Annex, where he had been stopping since his return from Mexico, shortly after 1 o'clock. He was driven to the Northwestern station, where a private car had been attached to the regular 2 o'clock train on that road. He was accompanied by several of his personal attendants. The train bearing Dowie and his party arrived at Zion City at 3:45 p. m. About seventy-five people, the majority of whom were women, were gathered at the station to meet the "first apostle." As Dowie alighted from the train he was greeted by shouts of "Peace to thee!" He responded with the customary "Peace to thee multiplied." Rain, which had been threatening for some time, then began to fall, and the crowd with one accord began to sing "Showers of Blessing."

Made Short Speech.

Under the shelter of an umbrella held by one of his attendants Dowie made his way to a carriage which was waiting for him. Upon reaching the door of the carriage, he turned, and, facing the assembled people, made a short address. "With all my heart I desire to thank you for your kind welcome," he said. "It is not fitting that I should speak at length at this time. I regret that the afternoon is so showery. I shall hope to meet you all at our morning sacrifice meeting for this morning, at 10 o'clock. I shall praise and pray for you kind people again in the afternoon at 2 o'clock."

Dowie then quoted a stanza from the hymn "I Stand on Zion's Mount." "Lifting up his hands, he cried: 'Stand firm, then, rock of my salvation.' 'I have done nothing since I saw your faces,' he continued, 'of which to be ashamed. Not one of the accusations made against me is true, not one. God bless you. Now I bid you good-bye. Peace to thee.'"

He then entered his carriage, and was driven to Shiloh house.

Voliva Denounces the Dowies.

Wilbur Glenn Voliva and his followers held a meeting in the tabernacle tonight, the auditorium being full of two-thirds full. In an address Voliva not only denounced Dowie, but Mrs. Dowie as well. He said:

"I do not propose to permit any sinner to think that he can escape. Do not think that Dowie is the only one to be called to account. The next one will be Mrs. Jane Dowie. If she thinks she is going to stand before this people without confessing her sin, she is greatly mistaken. In some respects she is as great a sinner as Dowie. She is on his side tonight and always has been. The lust in her heart for power is as great as in his. I saw the whole Dowie family must be swept off the earth."

This statement was loudly applauded.

Continuing, Voliva said: "For years that family has sucked the blood out of this people, to satisfy their lust for fine clothes and to make a showing. They have made no confession and no attempt to repent, but they still attempt to bluff you. If Dowie is not insane, the other word to brand him with is the word 'criminal'."

Voliva will use the college building as the place of worship tomorrow, while Dowie holds forth in the tabernacle, it being the "first apostle's" turn to defend himself, in accordance with the order of the court giving the opposing factions the use of the big meeting house on alternate days.

Continuing, Voliva said: "For years that family has sucked the blood out of this people, to satisfy their lust for fine clothes and to make a showing. They have made no confession and no attempt to repent, but they still attempt to bluff you. If Dowie is not insane, the other word to brand him with is the word 'criminal'."

Voliva will use the college building as the place of worship tomorrow, while Dowie holds forth in the tabernacle, it being the "first apostle's" turn to defend himself, in accordance with the order of the court giving the opposing factions the use of the big meeting house on alternate days.

Continuing, Voliva said: "For years that family has sucked the blood out of this people, to satisfy their lust for fine clothes and to make a showing. They have made no confession and no attempt to repent, but they still attempt to bluff you. If Dowie is not insane, the other word to brand him with is the word 'criminal'."

Voliva will use the college building as the place of worship tomorrow, while Dowie holds forth in the tabernacle, it being the "first apostle's" turn to defend himself, in accordance with the order of the court giving the opposing factions the use of the big meeting house on alternate days.

Continuing, Voliva said: "For years that family has sucked the blood out of this people, to satisfy their lust for fine clothes and to make a showing. They have made no confession and no attempt to repent, but they still attempt to bluff you. If Dowie is not insane, the other word to brand him with is the word 'criminal'."